Maintaining / Re-building

MAINTAINING

I got sober in Connecticut where I attended the state AA Convention every year. One of my favorite things was the Old Timer Panel. Every time, the message I got was “Do what you did in the beginning. The simple little things that got you sober will keep your sober, day by day, year after year.”

When I was 17 years sober, I retired from a corporate job and eventually returned to Corpus Christi, Texas where I grew up. Here, I heard about five daily things. While not an official AA suggestion, they provide a useful structure for maintaining my spiritual condition and getting my daily reprieve. The five daily things:

- Ask God to help me stay sober today. (This is part of my morning prayer and meditation.)
- Go to meetings. (I have a weekly regimen of meetings I attend. If it's Monday, I go to Weber at noon. I do better if I don't think about “Do I feel like going to a meeting? What meeting do I fancy today?” I just go.)
- Make a sober contact. (Sometimes I call my sponsor (at least once a week). Sometimes I talk to one of the people I sponsor. Sometimes I talk to another member of the fellowship. But every day I tell someone how it's going and how I'm doing – either can be off.)
- Read AA Conference-Approved Literature. (I like to read today's page in Daily Reflections and something in the Big Book.)
- Thank God for helping me stay sober. (This is part of my evening prayer and meditation.)

It is also very important for me to do a 10th Step Inventory every evening. I review my calendar and task list for the day and ask myself, “Did I keep my promises? What could I have done better? Was I kind to everyone? Do I owe amends?”

REBUILDING

When I retired, I bought an Airstream travel trailer and traveled a lot the first year. I attended an Airstream Rally in Tucson, AZ (near the Mexican border) and another rally in Burlington, VT (near the Canadian border) and I explored a lot between here and there. I spent a month in Tucson and the first thing I did was find the meetings I would attend, the pharmacy and super market I would frequent, etc. My dog and I settled into a new routine – our new normal. I repeated that everywhere we went.

Towards the end of the first year we settled in Corpus Christi. I identified my HEB and my Walgreen's and I picked Weber as my home group. In the beginning, I was there every time they had a meeting. I went to lunch with people after the noon meetings.

After a while, I realized that I needed a local sponsor – someone I saw on a regular basis and could have lunch or coffee with. When my first and second sponsors in Corpus Christi died, it was important for me to get another sponsor and build a relationship with them. When my third sponsor moved a way, again I needed to get another sponsor.

Our primary purpose is to carry the AA message to the still suffering alcoholic. A secondary purpose of The Bender is to keep the CBIA Area of South Texas informed as to the events, meeting changes, Board of Trustee actions / decisions, and other news of interest to AA's in the area. Finally, as a newsletter we provide a forum for the broad spectrum of views held by our members. Publication of any article submitted will be at the discretion of the Bender Editor as advised by the CBIA Board. A controversial subject, as long as it does not concern an outside issue and involves principles and not personalities, will be considered for publication. As a general guideline, any letter or article that is of interest to members of AA and in good taste is worthy of publication. However, an article or letter that advocates ignoring or violating the Traditions, Concepts, or General Service Conference actions will not be considered for publication.
