*"When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that I am responsible."

The New Attitude Group's Day of AA in Corpus Christi was held on Saturday, April 14th at St. John's United Methodist Church (5300 S. Alameda in Corpus Christi). Approximately 150 - 200 people attended this popular event.

Founded in 1997, Clean & Serene is the Coastal Bend's only GLBT (Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender) meeting. They meet at 8:00 PM on Fridays in the Pantry Building behind All Saints Episcopal Church (3026 S. Staples in Corpus Christi).

Taking Care of Yourself

Discharging or Re-Charging

As a sponsor in AA and other 12 step programs, I imagine that I have a virtual battery gauge -- similar to the battery gauge in my old truck that let me know if the batteries in the truck and the connected Airstream were being re-charged by the alternator or if they were discharging and running down without being re-charged.

On a 2,200 mile road trip with my Airstream travel trailer, I did notice that the battery was discharging as I drove. The alternator was not re-charging the batteries. After stopping in a remote rest area to walk my dog, I couldn't re-start the truck because the batteries were dead. I have since learned to watch this and other gauges more closely.

As a member of the fellowship helping others and, especially, as a sponsor, I need to watch my internal virtual battery gauge. If I'm in good shape physically and spiritually, then working with others can actually re-charge my battery -- as long as I remain detached and don't take on other people's problems as my own. It is as if the current from my higher power flows through me to them, recharging my battery in the process.

If I'm not in good shape, physically and spiritually; if I take on their problems as my own; if I don't accept that I can't fix them or their problems, then my battery is running down and I'm headed for trouble. This is much harder with relatives and close friends in whom I have a lot invested.

When I was five years sober I was spending all my AA socializing time hanging out with the small flock of newcomers I was sponsoring. I was not spending much time with my sponsor or other old timers. I got damn near as crazy as the newcomers were. One day when we were all a hot mess at the same time, the thought occurred to me I should load them all in my convertible and drive to the bridge so we could all jump together.

I have since learned that if I don't take care of myself, I won't be much help to anybody else. When I was a teenager and being trained to be a lifeguard, the Red Cross taught me to think of my own safety first and then do whatever I could to help others without putting myself at risk. Otherwise, we would both drown.

In 1995, the theme of a convention I attended in Connecticut was "Everybody has a higher power." They gave out refrigerator magnets with the theme on them. My sponsor had me add "and it's not you, Rob" to my magnet before I stuck it on my refrigerator.

Taking care of myself means not letting myself get too

- Hungry
- Angry
- Lonely or
- Tired.

Taking care of myself means going to meetings and talking about what's going on with me. Taking care of myself means not withholding anything from my sponsor.

If I were forced to pick a single slogan as my very favorite, it would be "Do the next right thing." I use that a lot. Over the years people have frequently misquoted me. "Do the next best thing" means something entirely different.

Anything I need to do to take care of myself is a right thing. All of the suggestions of the program are right things. However, if I'm hungry the NEXT right thing is to eat something. If I'm angry, the NEXT right thing is to step away from the situation so I don't do or say something I will regret later and process the anger -- to ask "What am I afraid of". If I'm lonely, the NEXT right thing is often to make a sober contact and talk about what's going on with me with my Sponsor or another member of the program. If I'm tired, the NEXT right thing is to take a nap or go to bed early. If I'm restless irritable and discontent and I've missed several of my regular meetings, the NEXT right thing is to go to a meeting.

Coastal BENDER Mission Statement

Our primary purpose is to carry the AA message to the still suffering alcoholic. A secondary purpose of The Bender is to keep the CBIA Area of South Texas informed as to the events, meeting changes, Board of Trustee actions / decisions, and other news of interest to AA's in the area. Finally, as a newsletter we provide a forum for the broad spectrum of views held by our members. Publication of any article submitted will be at the discretion of the Bender Editor as advised by the CBIA Board. A controversial subject, as long as it does not concern an outside issue and involves principles and not personalities, will be considered for publication. As a general guideline, any letter or article that is of interest to members of AA and in good taste is worthy of publication. However, an article or letter that advocates ignoring or violating the Traditions, Concepts, or General Service Conference actions will not be considered for publication. The mission of the Coastal Bend Intergroup Association is to provide the vital first contact to the alcoholic seeking help. The CBIA office must be maintained for the benefit of those still suffering. Of primary importance to this goal, the CBIA Office is to

- Establish a 24-hour help-line;
- Print meeting schedules; and
- Maintain a 12-Step list

whereby AA groups and individuals are enabled to conduct 12-Step calls which are essential to the growth of AA in the Coastal Bend area.
