*"When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that I am responsible."

The New Phoenix Group was founded in 2003. They have four meetings a day in Suite F in the Boardwalk (5433 S. Staples in Corpus Christi). They have meetings at noon, 6:00 PM, and 8:00 PM seven days a week. They have an early morning meeting at 6:30 AM Monday thru Friday and at 7:00 AM on Saturday and Sunday.

First Baptist Church (3115 Ocean Drive in Corpus Christi - Room 268) is home of

- The Happy Hour Meeting has an open discussion meeting at 5:30 PM on Wednesdays.

Step 5 - Integrity

Step 5: Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

This was hard for me because I had lived my life like appearances are everything. I was much more concerned with looking good than with doing good. Unfortunately the greater my academic and professional accomplishments, the more impressive stuff I acquired, the louder my disease screamed "You are a phony." So I never really got the satisfaction or happiness I expected.

My greatest fear was that if you really knew what I was like and what I had done you would not like me and you would leave me and poor little Robby would be all alone living in the park at Christmas. So when I did my first fifth step with my sponsor, I half expected him to run screaming into the night. What I got was unconditional love. He told me about similar things he had done. I learned that nothing human is unmentionable and nothing mentionable is unmanageable.

Later I shared some of my deepest darkest secrets at a meeting. In the middle of it, people got up to get coffee and to go to the restroom. And I realized that nobody but me was wrecked over this stuff. I have learned that anything I am hiding from anybody takes a toll on me and anything I am hiding from everybody is eating me alive.

For me, the primary principle behind Step 5 is INTEGRITY: To thine own self be true. It is about holding me accountable for having my behavior be consistent with the sort of person I aspire to be, the sort of person God created me to be. INTEGRAL means the parts fit perfectly into the whole. I have become a full member of the human race, striving to fulfill the role God has in mind for me.

My lack of integrity most often showed up in what I did not say. Perhaps my ex- would not notice that we now have only 11 Waterford tumblers. If my parents or my teachers wanted to think that somebody else did it, who am I to tell them otherwise.

I used to get upset (make that self-righteous anger) thinking that somebody else was getting away with something. I have learned that in the end nobody gets away with anything, so the best course is always to take responsibility for what I did or did not do. Regardless of what other people think, I will know what I did and I will not be OK with myself, with God or with them until I own up to it.

When I was drinking, none of the physicians or mental health professionals I consulted were able to help me very much because I did not tell the truth about my drinking. One of the reasons I have usually chosen to do Step 5 with my sponsor is that I have a rule for myself

"Don't ever withhold anything from your sponsor." A withhold is anything I do not want him to know, usually because I think he will think less of me or because I am afraid I won't be able to get away with doing something questionable that I want to do. So before I hang up the phone or before I leave, I ask myself "What are you withholding?" Often I've been thinking about doing something foolish -- perhaps something that will require amends; perhaps something self-destructive. Then I say, "And another thing I need to tell you . . ."

I think it is important for one person to know EVERYTHING about me. In early recovery, I went from person to person and from meeting, dropping a secret here and a secret there. That was better than hiding it from everybody, but it left me thinking "If anybody knew EVERYTHING, they wouldn't accept me."

From Step 5, I learned that I was not as good as I had hoped or as bad as I had feared. I was not the best little boy in the world and I was not the worst little boy in the world. I am, in a word, human. And that makes me part angelic child of God and part selfish and self-centered jerk.

Step 5 gave me a more realistic sense of my strengths and weaknesses which is necessary for me to have humility and be teachable. Taking Step 5 helped me identify patterns of bad behavior. While I never enjoy discovering these things (The truth will set you free, but first it will piss you off.), AA has given me the wherewithal to transform my rude awakenings into spiritual awakenings. There is great leverage in identifying my patterns: addressing one pattern can resolve a number of seemingly unrelated problems.

Having taken Step 5 is a deterrent to future bad behavior. Just thinking that I won't want to tell my sponsor about doing something, makes me think twice about doing it. I know that if I do it, sooner or later, I will tell Sponsor Dearest. So would it not be better to just not do it in the first place?

Coastal BENDER Mission Statement

Our primary purpose is to carry the AA message to the still suffering alcoholic. A secondary purpose of The Bender is to keep the CBIA Area of South Texas informed as to the events, meeting changes, Board of Trustee actions / decisions, and other news of interest to AA's in the area. Finally, as a newsletter we provide a forum for the broad spectrum of views held by our members. Publication of any article submitted will be at the discretion of the Bender Editor as advised by the CBIA Board. A controversial subject, as long as it does not concern an outside issue and involves principles and not personalities, will be considered for publication. As a general guideline, any letter or article that is of interest to members of AA and in good taste is worthy of publication. However, an article or letter that advocates ignoring or violating the Traditions, Concepts, or General Service Conference actions will not be considered for publication. All decisions will be made under the direction of God as expressed through our group conscience.
