*"When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that I am responsible."

Pine Street Community Center, 803 E. Pine Street, Victoria, is home to the Back to Basics Group. They have an open discussion meeting at 7:00 PM on Fridays.

The Rockport Fellowship Group meets at 814 Wharf Street in Rockport. They have meetings at 8:00 AM Monday through Saturday, at noon seven days a week, at 7:00 PM Monday Friday and Saturday and at 7:30 PM on Tuesdays. They have a women's meeting at 6:00 PM on Tuesdays and a men's meeting at 6:00 PM on Sundays.

Step 6 - Willingness

Step 6: Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.

My character defects are what my friends call "The trouble with Rob." They are the beliefs and behaviors that get in the way of me taking care of myself and being of service to God and others. Most of my defects originated early in life. They were the best adaptation I was capable of under the circumstances. I got attached to them because they seemed to work for me at the time. I thought they helped me survive. Subsequently, they became my automatic response to situations I perceive as similar -- even when they are inappropriate and ineffective. I got so attached to them I became unwilling to even consider giving them up.

A few years ago, someone asked AA's General Service Office to explain the difference between "defects of character" in Step 6 and "shortcomings" in Step 7. The answer was "There is no difference." Two different expressions meaning the same thing were used to avoid repetition in two successive sentences.

The principle behind Step 6 is WILLINGNESS. When I take on doing the will of God, He will remove any obstacles in my way, including my defects of character. But I have to be willing to give them up. If there were a Sixth Step Prayer, I think it would be a prayer for willingness.

The way monkeys are trapped in the wild is to place a bit of food into a small cage-like trap, designed so a monkey's open hand fits between the bars. But when the monkey grips the food in a closed fist, its hand won't pass back through the bars. Because the monkey is unwilling to give up the food, it is caught in the trap. So it was with me and my defects when I started my journey in recovery (and, sometimes, to this day).

Early on, a defect had to kick my natural ass, before I would give it up. I had to be laying on the floor in excruciating pain the way I was when I came to AA. I've learned that it is possible to raise the bottom -- I just have to be willing to give up the payoff I'm getting. Stated another way, I have to want to stop incurring the cost bad enough to be willing to give up the perceived benefit I've been getting. I do a journal exercise where I write down the payoff and the cost of the defect.

Generally the PAYOFF is something like -

- I get to be right and make others wrong;
- I get off the hook and don't have to take responsibility for something;
- I get to be comfortable with the familiar.

Generally the COST is things like

- Happiness;
- Self-Expression;
- Relationships with God, myself, and other people.

For me it often comes down to a choice between being right or being happy. As my values have changed in recovery, I would generally rather be happy. If I'm WILLING to let go of what I've got, God can give me something better.

Coastal BENDER Mission Statement

Our primary purpose is to carry the AA message to the still suffering alcoholic. A secondary purpose of The Bender is to keep the CBIA Area of South Texas informed as to the events, meeting changes, Board of Trustee actions / decisions, and other news of interest to AA's in the area. Finally, as a newsletter we provide a forum for the broad spectrum of views held by our members. Publication of any article submitted will be at the discretion of the Bender Editor as advised by the CBIA Board. A controversial subject, as long as it does not concern an outside issue and involves principles and not personalities, will be considered for publication. As a general guideline, any letter or article that is of interest to members of AA and in good taste is worthy of publication. However, an article or letter that advocates ignoring or violating the Traditions, Concepts, or General Service Conference actions will not be considered for publication. All decisions will be made under the direction of God as expressed through our group conscience.
