*"When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that I am responsible."

First United Methodist Church (420 S. Duval in Mathis) is home of the Mathis Unity Group. They have meetings here at 7:00 PM on Wednesdays.

408 S. Brownlee in Corpus Christi is home of Grupo Serenidad. They have meetings in Spanish from 8:00 PM to 9:30 PM on Tuesdays and Sundays.

Step 8 - Brotherly Love

Step 8: Made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all.

In early recovery I made amends in such a way that I had to make amends for the way I had made amends. The problem was that I had a hidden agenda -- I wanted to check them off my list and straighten them out at the same time.

I've learned that I need adult supervision in Step 8 to make sure I do not have a hidden agenda, to make sure my amends are appropriate, and to make sure I do not dig the hole deeper. My sponsors have mostly deleted things best left unsaid and kept me focused on my part in it "I was wrong when I . . . and this is what I propose to make it right." No rationalization or justification and certainly no snide remarks.

The principle behind Step 8 is Brotherly Love. A line in The Desiderata captures the spirit of this: "Wherever possible without surrender, be on good terms with all persons." Without surrender means I don't have compromise my integrity to please someone else. I don't owe amends for who I am -- just for my bad behavior. So sponsors have deleted people who did like me for who I am, as long I did not behave badly towards them.

Most of the people on my list came from the resentment inventory I made in Step 4. Other people were added as they occurred to me. I journal about each person on my list:

- Outstanding Resentments. This is the stuff I need to forgive them for. Forgiveness is a decision I make to stop judging them, blaming them, and demonizing them and get on with my life. I may subsequently forget that I made the decision, in which case I just need to remind myself, "Oh. I made a decision to forgive them."
- Outstanding Regrets. This is the stuff I have to make amends for. I need to determine what I need to do in order to forgive myself and allow myself the benefit of God's grace.
- Withheld Appreciation. Often the person involved had made a significant contribution to my life; often we used to have a valued relationship. I need to stop withholding the validation and appreciate them unconditionally.

Finally, I pray for the people on my list. This is related to forgiveness. I don't know that my prayer changes God, but it certainly changes me. I cannot ask God to bless someone every day for very long and still want them to rot in hell.

VI. OFFICE REPORT:

- New Computer. In January 2020, Microsoft will stop supporting Windows Version 7, the operating system for our old computer. Either way, we need to replace 10-11 year old software which will not work with Windows 10 for $600 ($250 for Microsoft Office and $350 for Quick Books Non-Profit).
 - Rosa moved to spend $850 to replace the computer and $600 for new software. Enrique seconded. Motion carried.
- Value Bank Fees. Rob said Value Bank has started charging a $12 monthly fee for any account with a balance of less than $3,500. This only affects the Jamboree account which has a balance of about $2,000 for most of the year. Rob argued that they should consider the combined balance. The Mid-Town Branch Manager agreed to waive the current charge and ask for a permanent waiver.
- YP (formerly AT&T Yellow Pages). Rob said two years ago the board decided to stop advertising with YP. When we advised them of this decision, they said the contract had just automatically renewed. We paid off the two-year contract and told them that our relationship would terminate when the two-year contract was up which was this year. They tried to automatically renew again. Customer Service checked into it and saw the documentation of our intentions from two years ago. They will honor our decision and offset the recent billing.

Helpline / 12 Step List

The Helpline is staffed by volunteers who are making sure that the hand of AA is available 24 hours a day in the Coastal Bend area by answering the phones overnight (5 PM to 8 AM) and on weekends (8 AM Saturday to 8 AM Sunday; or 8 AM Sunday to 8 AM Monday). A minimum of six months sobriety is required to answer the phones. The helpline is pretty well staffed at present.

If someone needs help beyond meeting information, the helpline passes them to someone on the 12-Step List for a longer conversation and maybe a visit to discuss how to get sober and stay sober. We especially need people (particularly women) in the surrounding area (like Beeville and Alice). Coastal BENDER Mission Statement

Our primary purpose is to carry the AA message to the still suffering alcoholic. A secondary purpose of The Bender is to keep the CBIA Area of South Texas informed as to the events, meeting changes, Board of Trustee actions / decisions, and other news of interest to AA's in the area. Finally, as a newsletter we provide a forum for the broad spectrum of views held by our members. Publication of any article submitted will be at the discretion of the Bender Editor as advised by the CBIA Board. A controversial subject, as long as it does not concern an outside issue and involves principles and not personalities, will be considered for publication. As a general guideline, any letter or article that is of interest to members of AA and in good taste is worthy of publication. However, an article or letter that advocates ignoring or violating the Traditions, Concepts, or General Service Conference actions will not be considered for publication.
