AA Member's Story

Well, here goes. It's July 5th and I'm sitting here kind of watching Wimbledon tennis. A good friend of mine came up to me this morning before the meeting to ask me a question. I was going into full panic mode wondering what he wanted to talk about. He asked me if I would write a story for the CBIA Newsletter! I had to say yes. I've been around a long enough to know I need to give back and be of service, not just for my own selfishness, but mainly for others.

My God has a wicked sense of humor. The topic of discussion this morning was about service work and how I needed to get out of my comfort zone. So, after a period of time for my brain to bounce off the walls in utter confusion, I remembered another good friend reminding me that I had a good story to tell.

It actually started around 12 years ago when I fell off a ladder pulling a dumb stunt with a chainsaw and fractured my leg. Foot turned around backwards, bones sticking out. I did it up right. I had managed to let my Higher Power God help me stay sober about 10 years around this time. I had some surgeries and metal plates put in; the whole nine yards. This AA program and my friends and family helped me to not drink through this by the grace of God working through them. I had proven over and over through the years that I couldn't do that on my own willpower. Looking back, I'm amazed the thought of drinking over this continuing saga never occurred to me. AA is really a miracle in progress.

I had some more surgeries and developed a staph infection that nearly took my life. My ortho surgeon eventually told me that my right leg had to be amputated or I would die from the infection. I remember (barely) kind of being in shock and saying to him, 'let's do it and get it over with'. No desire to drink over it, just do it so I can figure out what's next. What a miracle. What a blessing. I got a second opinion from our son's father-in-law who's also an orthopedic surgeon and the results were the same. So, I had my right leg removed about ten years ago. It wasn't all smooth sailing. I had to deal with a lot of pain meds along the way and I loved pain meds. Almost as much as I loved my cold beer. I've had a number of medical issues in the past decade. They called all of my family in over one of my episodes to advise them I was likely to die. I now have a broken right jaw (where the staph infection reappeared) with a detached metal plate in it that they tried to completely rebuild. It's dead numb among some other issues. I'm still dealing with some side effects of COVID. My lungs are about 45% effective now and I have COPD. I'm also a cancer survivor, although I've ultimately lost all my teeth over time due to the effects of the radiation treatment I received.

I tell all this not for sympathy, because believe me I don't like to draw attention to myself. Left to my own devices, I would withdraw and be a hermit. But God does for me what I can't do for myself or by myself. We've been in Corpus Christi a little over 2 years now and I know as sure as I'm sitting here that my God led me to this AA group and morning meeting that I am a part of now. I know I'm still here because God wants me to share and be of service, even though that is not comfortable for me at all. But I'm still here and God keeps prodding me along.

I truly love my New Phoenix Group of Alcoholics Anonymous and can't imagine my life without my meetings and all my friends. I am truly blessed with my family and AA family. I'll celebrate 23 years continuous sobriety next month. What a miracle. Just as important, my NPG family helps keep me sane. Life would just not be as content without my meeting every day. God bless them all. I'll leave my mental health journey as a story for another time.

CBIA Appreciates Ongoing Support

Group Contributions

CBIA would like to express their gratitude to the AA Groups that support us all during the year, it is our second biggest source of revenue.

The AA World Service pamphlet, Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix, suggests that AA Groups in areas served by an intergroup office distribute funds in excess of prudent reserve as shown below.

Thus, it is up to each group conscience to determine what (if anything) it contributes.

Your group might want to re-consider its contribution priorities temporarily. GSO and Intergroup have a bigger slice of the pie because they have much higher overhead (salaries, office space, etc.) than the other service entities. You might want to consider giving more to Intergroup and GSO and less to other service entities. Also, if your group has money earmarked that can be sent in earlier, that would be helpful.

Individual Contributions

We are grateful that individual members of our community have made contributions to Coastal Bend Intergroup. You can donate on the Birthdays Club list by just sending in a donation or drop it by the office. We are pleased with how many do send contributions throughout the year and we will continue to hope for ongoing individual support through 2023.

Where Are We Now?

Actual
July 2023

Contributions	$26,387.77
Gross Sales	$7,617.11
Cost of Goods Sold	($5,056.60)

Gross Gain	$28,948.28
Total Expenses	$22,522.60
Interest Income	7.75

Net Gain	$6,441.43

Have you heard it through the Grapevine yet?

AA Grapevine has gone social! It has its own podcast! Each week, longtime AA members Don and Sam interview different members about their experience, strength and hope. The half-hour podcast is a casual “meeting after the meeting” with jokes, fun and the typical AA banter. Listening to a few episodes, it’s a reminder that alcoholics are not a glum lot.

New episodes are available in English each Monday at 9:00am EST. The hosts interview their guests on getting sober, service, Steps, sponsorship and more. To listen to new or past episodes, visit www.aagrapevine.org/podcast (or wherever you get podcasts). By going to the website, members are able to email, call or leave voice recordings with comments, suggestions, jokes or recovery related questions for the Ask-It-Basket. Our Tradition of anonymity will be respected with all submissions on the show.
