

WHAT IS S.E.T.A.

The Southeast Texas Area Convention is an annual event organized by the Southeast Texas Area (S.E.T.A) 67 SETA Convention Committee, which is within the Southwest Region of Alcoholics Anonymous. The convention is usually held in January and rotates locations each year among Beaumont, Galveston and Houston. The convention is hosted and supported financially by the Southeast Texas Area Assembly.

WHAT WE DO

Our goal is to encourage the unity, service and recovery of members and to help reach the still suffering alcoholic.

THERE IS HOPE

Members share their experience, strength and hope. Life can be fun without alcohol; we are not a glum lot.

IS THIS YOUR FIRST CONVENTION?

Visit the First Timer's table, located in the south lobby. They have fun activities and will get you involved making new friends.
