Accepting the Gift of Sobriety

I had been sober only a month or two and was riding my motorcycle to a Saturday morning meeting. Riding my bike was one of the few pleasures I still enjoyed in the depths of my alcoholism.

I was extremely skeptical of the whole “God” thing because of my early religious experience. Tired of white knuckling it, I had reluctantly taken my group’s advice, and dropped to my knees to ask God to remove the desire to drink. While it had worked, I was still in no way a “grateful” alcoholic thinking it was a psychological trick. I had large financial and marital problems, and was still spiritually bankrupt.

As I exited a banked 90-degree curve at about 60 miles an hour. I heard my back tire pop and the rear of the bike swerved wildly from side to side. Somehow, I was able to get the bike to the side of the road without losing control and crashing.

Even at 9:00 in the morning it was extremely hot and humid. It rained the night before and it felt like steam was coming out of the ground. Although there was a motorcycle shop about a quarter-mile away I cursed my luck as I pushed the bike through the loose gravel on the shoulder. I was drenched in sweat when I finally got to the motorcycle shop.

They said they could put a new tube in the bike tire for $10. $10 was all the money I had and I swore under my breath as I gave it to them.

I started to hitchhike to the meeting and couldn’t understand why no one picked me up. I wasn’t even aware of my appearance, ignoring the fact that I had shoulder length hair, a long scruffy beard and wasn’t exactly dressed well. I started cursing, gave up and began to walk.

Hot, tired, and angry, I walked on a culvert to cross a small swampy area. Suddenly a bird song broke through my foul mood. I looked over to see a red winged blackbird just singing his heart out, perched on a cattail about 10 feet away. Out of nowhere an old verse from my childhood Bible school came into my head, “God takes care of the smallest sparrow in the field, why wouldn’t he take care of you.”

All of a sudden, I was overwhelmed with gratitude. I felt grateful that I hadn’t crashed my bike and been severely injured or killed. I was grateful that there was a motorcycle shop nearby. I was grateful I had $10. Most of all I was grateful to be sober. I suddenly realized that God really was watching out for me.

After trudging hot, angry and resentful, I had a massive change of heart. My step quickened, my mood lightened, my worries lifted and I transformed to being happy and grateful. Ten minutes later I entered the meeting and somebody commented that I had a smile on my face in contrast to my usual dour self. This small bird, a perfect expression of God, reassured me that he would indeed help me through all my difficulties if I just stayed sober and walked the AA path.

Have you heard it through the Grapevine yet?

AA Grapevine has gone social! It has its own podcast! Each week, longtime AA members Don and Sam interview different members about their experience, strength and hope. The half-hour podcast is a casual "meeting after the meeting" with jokes, fun and the typical AA banter. Listening to a few episodes is a reminder that alcoholics are not a glum lot!

New episodes are available in English each Monday at 9:00am EST. The hosts interview their guests on getting sober, service, Steps, sponsorship and more. To listen to new or past episodes, visit www.aagrapevine.org/podcast (or wherever you get podcasts). By going to the website, members are able to email, call or leave voice recordings with comments, suggestions, jokes or recovery related questions for the Ask-It-Basket. Our Tradition of anonymity will be respected with all submissions on the show.

If you are receiving the online version of the Grapevine, be sure and look up a story by Corpus Christi's very own, Valerie E. Valerie has a web story called "In the Middle of the Boat" Enjoy!

Helpline Help Needed!

More people are needed for “The Helpline”. The Helpline is staffed by volunteers who make sure the hand of AA is available 24 hours a day by answering the intergroup calls overnight (5 PM to 7:45 AM) and on weekends (8 AM Saturday to 8 AM Sunday or 8 AM Sunday to 7:45 AM Monday). This is a once-per-month commitment. A minimum of nine months sobriety is required to answer calls after office hours. If you are available to do this vital volunteer work, please contact CBIA as soon as possible to add your name.

Calls taken during the month of May by volunteers:

41- Calls for meeting information

2- Twelve Step Calls

08- Office Referral/Other Calls

12 Step List

If a caller needs help beyond meeting information, the helpline volunteer passes them to someone on the 12-Step List for a longer conversation on how to get sober and stay sober. A minimum of two years sobriety is required to be on the 12 Step List. If interested please call Terry or Rita at the CBIA office (361) 992-8911 between 8:30-11:30 AM or 2-5 PM Monday thru Friday.

Local Stories Wanted For the Coastal BENDER- Consider writing your recovery story or an article on an AA topic for publication in this newsletter. Submit your article to cbia@grandecom.net in a Word document or similar format.

Treatment and Facilities Committee meets the 2nd Saturday of each month at the New Phoenix Group at 5433 S. Staples Ste H, in Corpus Christi, TX at 2pm. Everyone is welcome, including newcomers. You might find that you would like to be of service, and you will find it very informative even if you don't commit.

District 8D Corrections Committee could use your help to carry the AA message to the incarcerated alcoholic. There are 12 Step opportunities at the Nueces County Jail, Mc Kinzie Jail Annex, SATF, and TDCJ State Prisons. (Volunteers must pass a background check.) You can also consider becoming an AA contact for newly released alcoholics, both men and women are needed for that. Please donate your used Grapevines to the collection box located at New Phoenix Group or CBIA. If you don't have any old issues, back issues can be purchased directly from Grapevine or monetary contributions to the Corrections Committee are also helpful! To volunteer or more information contact Dan G. (361) 900-7890 or Karen S. (362) 980-7412.
